

Directions from Munich to Leogang

- To collect your rental car follow the signs to Mietwagon/Rental Car
- Some rental agencies require an additional €20 insurance since you are taking the car from Germany to Austria
- In Austria you will be on a Toll-way for about 10km. Technically you are supposed to purchase a Viniette from a gas station for this toll. We never do as you are on the Toll-way for such a short amount of time.

DIRECTIONS

1. As you exit the rental car area there is only one way out so there are no decisions to make just follow the road as it turns left out of the airport.
2. Head towards Munchen (Munich) which is A92 – (do not take the Halbermoss exit) – you will see a blue sign for Munchen/Allerrichtungen which is the exit you want
3. You will stay on A92 for about 10 minutes
4. Keep right and merge onto the A9 to Salzburg/Munchen
5. You will be on the A9 for about 10 minutes
6. Merge right onto the A99 (NOT to Munchen)
7. You will be on A99 for about 18 minutes
8. Merge onto the A8 and take for about 20-25 minutes
9. Take Exit 101 to the A93 toward Kufstein/Osterreich (do not take towards Wien/Salzburg)
10. Exit the motorway to the right to Kufstein-Sud/Felbertauern (note that there is no exit number and the sign is right at the exit) Do not take Kufstein-Nord which is the first exit.
 - a. Once you have passed the exit for Kufstein-Nord there is a lovely castle on your left.
11. Merge onto B173 to St. Johann
12. You will go straight through a round-about in order to remain on B173.
13. At the next round-about take the first exit to remain on B173 to St. Johann
14. At the fork in the road as you enter St. Johann keep left to go to B178.
15. Go into the short tunnel as you are in St. Johann do not follow the sign to St. Johann Zentrum
16. Turn slightly right onto B164 towards
17. At the next roundabout take the 3rd exit to Fieberbrunn to remain on B164
18. Keep on B164 as it goes through Hochfilzen
19. Leogang is 10km after Hochfilzen on B164
